INDIANHEAD 1971

The colors of change affect students at Pembroke State University

Each day holds something which changes us

Experimenting with new ideas -

Always striving for improvements

Establishing ourselves

Getting to know one another -

Relationships of love - - - a potent word often misused, never forgotten - - - the bonding element of our dreams.

We change our selves

while changing our world

We lose ourselves in unrealities . . .

unaware of realities -

But because of changes in ourselves,
we initiate change in P.S.U.

Dedication

For his total commitment to education through

- his deep and abiding interest in each student
- his constant concern for faculty excellence in teaching
- his untiring efforts in charting the progressive growth of the University

We, the Senior Class, are proud to dedicate the 1971 INDIANHEAD to Dr. English E. Jones, President of Pembroke State University.

"The highest of distinctions is service to others."

The Times are changing

Homecoming

The week of December 7—12 proved to be P.S.U.'s most exciting and fulfilled Homecoming. Activities included an art auction, Bill Deal and the Rhondels appearing at the Stable, "Arms And The Man" presented by the Drama Department, parachute jumping, a formal dance, crowning of Vickie Canipe as Homecoming Queen, parade with Phi Kappa Rho winning for the Greeks and A.C.E.I. winning for the Clubs, crowning of Furman Clark as Mr. Homecoming, the retiring of Joe Gallagher's Basketball jersey, and the Braves winning over Methodist College. And, as usual, parties galore!

Both students and faculty members enjoyed a formal evening of dancing.

Mr. Homecoming

Tau Delta Rho Sorority and the Interfraternity Council Sponsored P.S.U.'s first annual Mr. Homecoming Contest. Furman Clark was chosen Mr. Homecoming and Ken Robinson was first runner-up.

No Connie, you can not be put on the same side the boys are on.

Whot are we doing here in the new girls' dorm and there ore no girls?

In a world intent upon unrealities,

we must become aware of the realities.

We must remain united with willingness to change,

or we fall into the mist of yesterday.

"Man's World"

"Try to realize it's all within yourself — no one can make you change . . .
And to see you're only very small and life flows on, within you and without you.

Through this yearbook, we have tried to capture this academic year at Pembroke State University. Although there are many changes occurring, you can look back and remember.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Mrs. Doris Johnson, Mr. James Chavis, and Mr. Ed Goldston for their guidance, assistance, and encouragement which they shared with me in preparing this yearbook. A special thank-you goes to my roommate, Brenda Dooley, for pulling me through the rough spots and for always being there to lend a helping hand.

Now I close the 1971 Indianhead along with a part of myself and hope that it may become a part of you.
